

Membership

Dyfed Poultry Society is a Show Society which manages The Welsh National Poultry Show through the goodwill of its members and volunteers.

Formed in 1974, the Society began organising shows at Llanybydder before moving to the County Showground at Withybush, Haverfordwest in 1987. In 2007 Brithdir Hall was built on the Showground as a permanent home for The Welsh National through a legacy by Dyfed Poultry Society's late Treasurer, Mr Desmond Little.

Members are eligible to:

- be sent schedules for The Welsh National & Pembrokeshire Agricultural Society Poultry Shows automatically.
- reduced entry fees to the Welsh National Poultry Show.
- enter Dyfed Poultry Society's October Sale, if a member on 31st January of that year.
- attend Dyfed Poultry Society's Show Meetings.
